

Online courses offered by InterCultural Iceland 2024/2025

ICI is offering different kinds of on-line opportunities that you can see below. The offers that you can book now are the following but we are also open for discussions on other structures. Please contact Guðrún (gudrun\(at\)ici.is) for further information:

1. Online Flex I – Group worthy tasks for cooperative learning in diverse classrooms
– Individual course meant for former ICI course participants.
2. Online Flex II – “Using creative cooperative learning tasks during a Sensitization training on racism, discrimination, migration etc. – Individual course meant for former ICI course participants.
3. If we don't talk about it, who will? Short awareness training on discrimination and everyday racism
For teachers, trainers and other staff members of one organization or school that join the course together on site in their location (trainer on-line). Minimum number of participants 16, no maximum number of participants – One day course
4. Diverse society – Diverse Classrooms - Student's diversity benefitting social diversity. Special focus on key competences, cooperative learning and inclusion in multicultural/diverse groups of learners.
For teachers and trainers of one organization or school. Any school level.
Minimum number of participants 16, maximum number of participants 30.
One or two day course on site in their location (trainer on-line).
5. Individual/pair support/coaching
This possibility is meant for teachers/trainers that have already joined a ICI course but wish for support with creating tasks and implementing them with their learners. These can be former participants of all ICI courses.
